Gaylord Times Herald ‘Best of the Best’ Awards

Treetops Resort Takes Top Honors in SIX Categories and Honors in 23 Categories Overall

Including Top Honor of ‘Best Golf Course’

(Gaylord, MI) August 4, 2020 – Michigan’s Most Spectacular Resort – Treetops Resort is pleased to have heard of their wins in the Gaylord Times Herald ‘Best of the Best’ readers’ poll. Treetops Resort home to five championship golf courses including North America’s #1 Par Three Course – Threetops, took top honors in the Best Golf Course category in addition to five more top honors including Best Preschool, Best Company Culture, Best Place to Host a Work Event, Best Training Program, and Most Innovative Workplace.

“These honors are something our entire team should be proud of. Our staff is dedicated to serving our guests in the most safe and friendly manner. And these honors are proof in the pudding. I am humbled by the number of honors our resort received, and realize this is a readers’ poll which makes it mean so much coming from our very own northern Michigan community,” said Barry Owens, General Manager. “I am particularly proud of our Assistant General Manager and Director of Golf & Ski Kevin McKinley as he received the honor of being a ‘Best Boss’, this is proof that Kevin cares each day about our employee team in addition to delivering the culture of caring for our guests,” Owens went on to say.

Additionally, Treetops Resort received a ‘Best Event’ award for its Grill on the Hill Green Egg Festival held in the spring the past two years, just behind the beloved Alpinefest – a 50+ year old event.
